

Creating a digital repository for sources on European colonial architecture and town planning (c.1850-1970)

CONFERENCE (January 21, 2014)

Exploring the colonies: European colonial architecture and town planning (c.1850-1970)

PROGRAMME (PRELIMINARY)

- 09.00-09.30 hours Arrival
09.30-09.45 hours Opening
09.45-10.15 hours Mercedes Volait: Towards a global and connected history of modern European architecture
10.15-10.45 hours Herman van Bergeijk: The distant gaze. H.P. Berlage and the Dutch Indies
10.45-11.00 hours Break
11.00-11.30 hours Nicholas Clarke: The Lure of the Golden Republic: Eclectic 19th Century Dutch Architects on the Transvaal High Veld
11.30-12.00 hours Robert Home: Researching British colonial urban planning and landscapes
12.00-12.30 hours Eduard Kögel: Shanghai heritage under pressure
12.30-13.00 hours Lunch
13.00-13.30 hours Ola Uduku: Colonial Heritage in Nigeria: the 'Government Reservation Area' Model'
13.30-14.00 hours Madalena Cunha Matos: Photographic collections of the Portuguese colonies of Angola and Mozambique in the first half of the 20th century
14.00-14.30 hours Gabriella Restaino: Asmara vs Addis Ababa. Urban models in overseas territories: existing structures, grafting, new city
14.30-14.45 hours Break
14.45-16.00 hours Caterina Borelli: Asmara, Eritrea (film viewing)
16.00-16.30 hours Frits van Latum: TUDelft repository
16.30-17.30 hours Drinks

VENUE

Delft University of Technology
Faculty of Architecture and The Built Environment
Berlage Room
Julianalaan 134
2628 BL Delft
The Netherlands

CONTACT

Pauline K.M. van Roosmalen (project coordinator)
T +31(0)648-280375 / (0)15-2781129
E P.K.M.vanRoosmalen@TUDelft.nl

FUNDING

PARTNERS

Het Nieuwe
Instituut

Tropenmuseum